

Benefits of Belonging

AAUCSF is pleased to offer benefits to UCSF alumni and friends through a number of partnerships. Many of the programs generate revenue that supports alumni programming. For the full list of alumni benefits, please visit www.ucsfalumni.org/benefits. Benefits include:

Alumni email forwarding account

We are pleased to offer alumni complimentary use of an @alumni.ucsf.edu email address that can be forwarded to a personal email account of your choice. To create your alumni email forwarding account, log on to your online community profile, then visit www.ucsfalumni.org/email.

Career services

Looking for a job? Need career advice? Or are you an employer who would like to hire UCSF grads? UCSF's Office of Career and Professional Development can help! Visit career.ucsf.edu/alum for more info.

UC Extension Courses

UCSF alumni receive a discount on extension courses at UC campuses, with proof of UCSF alumni membership. For more information visit <http://www.ucalumni.net/reciprocalbenefits/>. Please note: currently UCSF does not offer extension courses.

UCSF Campus Store

Get your UCSF-branded gear and more through the online campus store! Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/campusstore for more info.

Fitness & Recreation Center discounts

UCSF alumni are eligible for a special membership rate at the Bakar Fitness and Recreation Center at UCSF's Mission Bay Campus and at the Millberry Fitness & Recreation Center on the Parnassus Campus. For more information, or to join, go to <http://campuslifeservices.ucsf.edu/fitnessrecreation/>.

Privileges at UC Libraries

Obtain free library privileges at UCSF's Kalmanovitz Library by presenting proof of Alumni Association membership at the circulation desk. UCSF alumni are also eligible for other UC library privileges. Note: policies vary from campus to campus.

Access to the ProQuest Digital Research Library

ProQuest is a subscription-based digital collection of thousands of peer-reviewed journals, magazines and newspapers licensed by the UCSF Library for the alumni community. Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/proquest to login and access the ProQuest Library.

Travel Discounts

UCSF is pleased to offer alumni and friends special rates for several hotels and services. As an added benefit, your participation supports UCSF. Participating hotels and services include: Club Quarters, InterContinental Hotel, Rental Cars and Choice Hotels, and Alumni Travel Programs. Check www.ucsfalumni.org/travel for details.

Financial Programs

Looking for a new way to support UCSF? Get special UCSF alumni discounts with our affinity partners and your participation will support UCSF. Partners include Geico and Golden 1 Credit Union.

Stay in Touch.

Update your contact information through the Online Alumni Community! Visit www.ucsfalumni.org to activate your profile. If you don't know your community ID, please email alumni@support.ucsf.edu or call 415-476-4723. Once you have activated your profile, you can search for classmates in the online directory, join or start a group, post class notes, and more!

Join UCSF on LinkedIn and Facebook or view alumni event photos on Flickr. Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/socialmedia to find our groups.

Attend an Event.

Come to a UCSF event and reconnect with classmates, network with professionals in your field, meet UCSF leadership, faculty and students, and more! Visit www.ucsfalumni.org to see a full schedule of events, including regional events, UCSF receptions at professional meetings and conferences, and events with current UCSF students and postdocs.

Save the date of April 25-27 for Alumni Weekend 2013! All UCSF alumni, faculty, students, staff and friends are invited for 60+ festivities, including continuing education sessions, tours, and galas.

Volunteer.

Become a Mentor.

Connect with current and future UCSF students by serving as a career mentor or an admissions volunteer. To join the career advisory network, call 415-476-4986 or visit <http://career.ucsf.edu/alum/>. For more information on admissions volunteering, email alumni@support.ucsf.edu.

Join Your Alumni Association.

Get involved with the Alumni Association of UCSF (AAUCSF) and with your school's alumni association! As an alumnus of UCSF, you are automatically enrolled as a member of the Alumni Association of UCSF. Additionally, each school has its own alumni association to serve and represent its graduates.

AAUCSF is the campus-wide alumni association and it consists of all degree-holding graduates of UCSF, current and past trainees at UCSF, including house staff, residents, fellows, postdoctoral fellows, and graduate students, and current members or former full-time, part-time and adjunct members of the faculty. Get involved by:

- Joining or starting a regional chapter
- Hosting an event
- Applying for an AAUCSF grant to build a new program in support of AAUCSF's mission.

Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/AAUCSF for more information.

Be a Leader.

AAUCSF is currently accepting nominations for alumni interested in election to the Board. The Board oversees the Alumni Association's efforts to engage, advance and support the UCSF community through a variety of programs and services as well as opportunities for volunteerism and advocacy. AAUCSF also offers committees to spearhead important alumni programming in the following areas: advocacy, student-alumni engagement, Alumni Weekend, regional chapters and events, and diversity & outreach.

Join your school-based alumni board for the Schools of Dentistry, Pharmacy, Medicine Nursing and the Graduate Division. Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/boards for more information on how to apply.

Advocate for UC.

Volunteer advocates play a critical role in securing UCSF's future by contacting state officials on matters important to UCSF and higher education. Advocates support the University by:

- Contacting elected officials.
- Participating in lobby activities.
- Meeting with legislators and staff in their district offices.
- Participating in special events.

Visit www.ucsfalumni.org/advocate for more information.
